[REDACTED] Star #5091; Emp [REDACTED]
Assigned to the 015th District, 1st Watch.

Alleged Victim:

None

Allegation: Officer [REDACTED] was observed to be very hostile, intoxicated and confused due to the influence of pain killer medication and alcohol. [REDACTED] made threats to harm herself in the presence of Witness #1- [REDACTED] and Witness #2- [REDACTED]. R/Sgt observed [REDACTED] behavior to be consistent with a person in need of psychiatric and substance abuse treatment.

Date/Time: 21 August 2012, approx. 1923 hrs.

Location: [REDACTED] Occurred outside, under clear conditions.

I.P.R.A. Notification OPS Command, P.O. Chibe #7303, on 22Aug12, at 0105 hrs.

Narrative: R/Sgt was summoned to the above address by Beat 821, in regards to the unusual behavior, demonstrated by Officer [REDACTED] assigned to the 015th District. R/Sgt was informed [REDACTED] made threats to harm herself, if her 16 year old son- [REDACTED] left her house. Witness #1- [REDACTED] and Witness #2- [REDACTED] also stated [REDACTED] had picked up [REDACTED] from school, on several occasions with her vehicle, highly intoxicated. This worried her family members and they wanted to take [REDACTED] to their house, while [REDACTED] sought help for her addiction to alcohol. [REDACTED] was very hostile to this possibility and threatened to harm herself. R/Sgt contacted EAP for assistance and Beat 9033, responded to the scene, and tried to convince [REDACTED] to admit herself into a substance abuse program at [REDACTED] with negative results. During the extended time the R/Sgt was on scene, begging and imploring [REDACTED] to seek medical and psychiatric help, he observed [REDACTED] on multiple occasions, purposely and intentionally try to hurt herself, by attempting to hit her head on a car door frame and leap from a moving squad car. Unfortunately and regrettably, these actions led the R/Sgt to involuntary admit [REDACTED] into [REDACTED] for a psychiatric evaluation. See RD [REDACTED] for additional details regarding this incident.

INVESTIGATIONS DIVISION
General Investigations Section

05 September 2012
CL No. 1056490

TO: Juan Rivera
Chief
Bureau of Internal Affairs

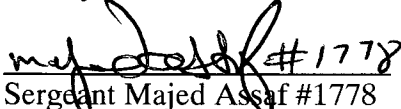

FROM: Sergeant Majed Assaf #1778
Investigations Division
General Investigations Section

SUBJECT: Request to Administratively Close

On 05 September 2012 at approximately 1250 hours the undersigned telephonically contacted Sergeant Andres ZAYAS of the Human Resources Division/Behavioral Concerns Section. The purpose of the call was to inquire about the status of P/O [REDACTED], the accused in Complaint Log No. 1056490

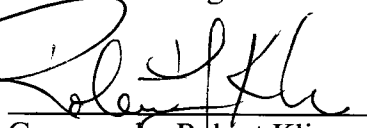

Sergeant ZAYAS related that P/O [REDACTED] is scheduled for a Fitness for Duty evaluation on 10 September 2012 and has submitted to Alcohol/Drug testing with the Random Drug Testing Unit. During an incident (RD No [REDACTED]) at her home, where police were dispatched, [REDACTED] appeared to be irrational, aggressive, abusive, uncooperative, incoherent and under the influence of alcohol. [REDACTED] was also heard stating that she was going to kill her self. [REDACTED] was ultimately admitted to an Alcohol and Substance Abuse Program at [REDACTED]

Although [REDACTED] was alleged to have been intoxicated during the incident, a notification to Internal Affairs was not made. Therefore no empirical evidence exists to support the allegation. Furthermore, [REDACTED] is currently undergoing a Fitness for Duty evaluation through the Human Resources Division. A Complaint Log investigation at this point would be unproductive. Therefore the undersigned is requesting that this case be Administratively Closed.

Sergeant Majed Assaf #1778
Investigations Division
General Investigations Section

APPROVED:

Commanding Officer
Investigations Division
General Investigations Section

Commander Robert Klimas
